MASKETTE WINS CANTERING

KEENE'S GRAND FILLY FIRST FROM START TO FINISH IN THE FUTURITY.

Sir Martin Defeats Helmet for Second Place in a Hard Drive-Half Sovereign's Fall Handicap.

New York, August 29.—Maskette, James R. Keene's wonderful daughter of Disguise—Biturica, won the rich Futurity at Sheepshead Bay today from eight brilliant opponents in 1:111. This equals Colin's time of last year. Forewarned of the overwhelming superiority of the Keene, Madden and Whitney pairs the owners of the other elligibles to the big fixture were deterred from starting their cardidates, and as a consequence today's field numbered only nine starters one less than in the cardidates, and as a consequence today's field numbered only nine starters one less than in the cardidates, and as a consequence to a colerie of lorsemen as he started up the main stairway to get a good view of the race. Maskette as a colerie of lorsemen as he started up the main stairway to get a good view of the race. Masketteran in bandages on both forclegs and her backers became uneasy thereat. As a matter of fact Maskette is threatened with osselets, which have respectively and Helmet drew out at the start and deminated the running thereafter. Both Perseus and Hillside were forwardly placed during the early running, as were Sir Martin and Mediant, the latter closing a big gap into prominent contention from a bad start. When the field flashed into full view of the succtators the Keene pair seemed in imminent danger of being surrounded. This flusion was kette and Helmet singled out like rackets and lackette and word of the surrounded of the surrounded

There were also twenty private detectives under the direction of detective Lanyon, acting under the direct authority of Governor Hughes.

Mr. Parsons wanted to know how the odds published in the form charts sent to the local newspapers were obtained and was greatly amused when informed that they were being received over the relephone from New York City. He placed all the telephone fracilities at the track at the disposal of the received over the relephone from New York City.

informed that they were being received over the inclephone from New York City. He placed all the telephone facilities at the track at the disposal of the newspaper men.

The card contained five grand racing features be sides the Futurity. Without exception their running movided brilliant and entertaining racing spectacies. To witness the Inaugural Steeplechase over two miles of cross-country, contested by hine of the swiftest and most accomplished immers in the country, was alone worth the price of admission. This was followed by the Fall Handican, at six and a half-furlongs, always a wonderful struggle. It was won by Half-Sovereign in L138, a new track record for the distance. Celebrities like Roseben, De Mund and Dorante were participants.

De Coursey Forbes sailed for England today to look after James R. Keene's recent shipment of yearlings to the other side.

"If it is to be the last Futurity which is to be run in the east, and I hope it is not." James R. Keene is quoted as saying prior to the start: "I hope that the horse which wins will make it the most monorable race of its kind in the history of our succession. All the layers and bettors who did business on the last day at Elmire City were connelled to do shelr settling outside of the Sheepshead Bay inclosure today.

George Saportas wasgered $500 on Simon Pure at 5 to 1 in the city. Other big owners who were racing dorses at Sheepshead Bay today also left what bets they had in contemplation with their commissioners in town.

NEW YORK RUMORS ABOUT NEW ORLEANS.

New York, August 29.—That there is a chance for pacing at New Orleans next winter may be inferred from the fact that Louis Cella has renewed for three years his lease on the Fair Grounds track. Mr. Cella is not renewing leases on property he cannot make something out of.

He is assured by lawyers at the Crescent City that the anti-racing bill nessed by the last legislature at Baton Rouge will not stand the Supreme Court test. Not one, but a dozen men have told that the new measure is unconstitutional. Jella has told his lawyer friends to go ahead and break the law and he will foot the bills.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION MEETING.

Lexington. Ky., August 29.—A call has been issued for a meeting of the State Racing Commission on Monday next, but it is likely that it will be deferred a few days, because of the absence of Messrs, Milton Young and E. F. Clay, who are attending the sales of their yearlines in New York, When the commission meets, it will be to pass upon the requests for racing dates here, at Louisville and at Latonia.

THE FIFTH FILLY TO WIN THE RICH FUTURITY STAKES.

JAMES R. KEENE'S BR. F. 2. MASKETTE, BY DISGUISE-BITURICA.

The Futurity heroine, Maskette, has had a brief career of unbroken success. Her first start was in a purse race for maidens at Saratoga, August 3, which she won from Miss Kearney by a half length in 1965, with Louise Bell third. Her second race was in the valuable Splmaway Stakes, August 5. Here, with 112 pounds up, she won by a length and a half and ran the five and a half furlongs of the race in 1955. Her stablemate, Wedding Bells, was second and Lady Hubbard third. In her third race she gained the distinction of being the fifth filly to win the Futurity, sharing that honor with The Butterflies, L'Alouette, Hamburg Belle and Artful. To date her record is as follows: Sts

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE FALL HANDICAP.

The Fall Handicap has for a number of years been run as a companion attraction with the Futurity on the opening day of the Sheepshead Bay fall meeting. It is the first of the autumn serial handicaps, of which the Ocean and the Omnium are the other two. It has always been a coveted prize with owners and in its list of winners shows the names of such fast horses as Lady Violet, The Butterflies, Gotham, Ornament, Waring, Shot Gun, Hamburg Belle and De Mund. The latter won it last year and will try to repeat oddy. The record of the event-is as follows:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE INAUGURAL STEEPLECHASE.

The Inaugural Steeplechase was run for the tenth time yesterday at Sheepshead Bay. Its comparatively short distance has always appealed to owners and trainers and it has usually been contested by the best jumpers of each recurring year. The famous and much traveled English steeplechaser. John E. P., is the only horse that has ever been able to win it twice, finishing first last year and in 1906. He area is:

FORT ERIE'S MEETING ENDS

PRONOUNCED THE MOST SUCCESSFUL IN ALL RESPECTS EVER HELD THERE.

Minnie Adams Takes the Canadian Sportsman Handicap-Polly Prim Defeats The Minks Offender Ruled Off.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 29.—The inaugural meeting of the Niagara Racing Association terminated this afternoon, after thirty days of the most successful racing in the history of the Fort Eric track. Financially and in many other ways it exceeded the expectations of the present management and plans are already under way to enlarge and beautify the plant and make it rank with the best in the country. The daily attendance was really phenomenal, the sport snappy and high-class. Fast time was also recorded in many instances and in time this track promises to become one of the fastest in the country.

The getaway card arranged by Secretary Maginn was a splendid one and furnished entertaining sport for one of the best attendances of the meeting. The Canadian Sportsman Handicap was the richest offering of the afternoon, it having a net value of $1,150 to the winner. Fred Cook's Minnie Adams landed the stake in easy fashion from Lady Baldur and Hambridge.

The handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, which followed, resulted in a spirited and fast run race. Polly Prim, the top weight and favorite, getting home in advance of The Minks. Numerons withdrawar's reduced the field in the sixth race to only five starters, of which Reidmoore was thought best and heavily supported. He made good, but only after he had given his backers several anxions moments in trailing distantly until in the last furlong where he made a rush and overhauled Geneva S. and Quagga. The latter was subjected to much interference, but overcame it in time to take second place by a short margin from the heavily backed Geneva S. A big coup was intended in the closing race with Sicamons, but it failed when Bitter Hand led throughout and won in a sharp drive.

T. M. Green again showed superior class by shouldering 115 pounds, conceding much weight to a good band of youngsters and winning in a canter. There might have been a closer contest but for the fact that Michael Angelo was almost put over the feace in the first quarter and Foley's stupid riding of Emperor Wi in her start previous to yesterday. The indres also recommended that in future the bids of bookmakers on winners be not accepted. This was a result of the bidding up of Lady Esther by Fred Slocum last night.

Burlew & O'Neill have disposed of Yankee Tourist to P. T. Chinn and Flower Beauty to J. R. Wainwight. The latter is also negotiating for the transfer of Chapultepec and may secure him for $5,000.

J. H. Gardner, manager of the Santa Anita race track, was among today's visitors, and during the afternoon held a conference with Barney Schreiber and Judge Murphy regarding racing there next winter.

The stories published from Louisville that Douglas Park would break from the holding company agreement and would hold its uncetting this fall with books, was branded as false by L. A. Cella today. There is a solutely no ground for the story that the holds, was branded as false by L. A. Cella today. There is a solutely no ground for the story that the racing company will be dissolved. The Louisville racing is the racing details of the proposed meeting at St. Louis. Barney Schreiber may accompany him.

MONTREAL MEETING OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY. Great Crowd in Attendance to View Fast and Well-Contested Racing.

Montreal, Que., August 29.—The autumn meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club began today under conditions which augur well for its success. Despite the counter attractions of a championship herosse match and a baseball game, fully 7,500 turned out to witness the racing at beautiful Blue Bonnets. It was a gathering which included the elite of the province of Quebec, many high officials in public life being present on the clubbouse lawns and verandah. The club did its share in the entertainment by providing an excellent program, which included, besides the Earl Grey Cup, a handleap at a mile and a furlong, the Inaugural Flandleap at six furlongs, which brought out some good sprinters, and a steeplechase over the two-mile course.

The veteran Kentuckian, Amos Turney, provided the winner of the Earl Grey Cup, Martin Dovie, which led his competitors from end to end. A majority of the races furnished interesting contests and all the winners were hailed with great enthusiasm.

In the absence of Frank Bryan, who remained at Baltimore to finish up the meeting there. John F. Ryan acted as presiding judge, while C. J. Fitzgerald directed matters from the stewards' stand.

A number of stables arrived this morning from New York and Fort Erie, among them the strings of Thomas C. McDowell, James McLaughlin, Edward Garrison and P. Dunne. Seven more carloads are due in the morning.

Sig Levy. W. A. Porter, Jack Atkin, John Parnell, J. McInerney, M. L. Hayman, Joe Yeager and Wilton C. Percy were among the arrivals from New York.

Anne McGee, a two-year-old filly owned by Edward Corrigan, is down with fever, She is the only sick horse on the grounds.

JOCKEY BUTLER FOR LOS ANGELES.

Lexington, Ky., August 29.—Before leaving for New York Thursday morning, Joe S. Hawkins said he had made up his mind to race at Los Angeles this winter and that he would take out a string of about twelve. He has six older horses in his barn at the Kentucky Association course and two year-lings. He wants about half a dozen more yearlings and will probably buy them at Sheepshead Bay. 'Il can get them cheaper out of the sales ring than I can buy them here privately,' said he. 'The breeders are asking about three times as much for them at home than they will bring in New York. I won't say that anyone has priced me a horse for head to be a superior of the say that anyone has priced me a horse for businessan he is probably worth, but it is not good businessan he is probably worth, but it is not good businessan for bess elsewhere. Really, I wouldn't be buying or racing at all were it not for Jimmy Butler. I have the contract on Butler and he is developing into a star jockey. We were together through his schooling and I feel that the parting should not come until I have had an opportunity to share the fruits of his ability which I have aided in developing. After the season on the coast it is my intention to come home, turn out and wait until matters right themselves in the east. I do not believe we will have to wait more than three years for the complete re-establishment of racing in New York.''

MISS OFFICIOUS WINS A RICH STAKE.

Seattle, Wash., August 29.—The Puget Sound Handicap at two miles, the most valuable long-distance fixture ever decided in the northwest, was won by Matt Reis' Meddler mare. Miss Officious, today over a track that was fetlock deep in mud. The day brought respite from the rain that had been falling intermittently during the week and the novelty of a long-distance stake attracted a tremendous attendance. Enthusiasm was boundless as Miss Officious scored in a canter after leading First Peep and Harry Scott, the only other starters, every inch of the two-mile route. While First Peep ruled the favorite for the race, Miss Officious was backed by the mass of race-goers in a spirit of local pride, her owner being a resident of Seattle.

The running of the race was marred by a jam on the first rurn in which First Peep androwly escaped falling. Jockey Russell, who rode the winner, was held responsible for crowding Harry Scott against the favorite and was fined $50. The incident in no wise affected the outcome, but A. G. Dunlap, owner of First Peep, and William Walker, owner of Harry Scott, had a personal encounter over it late in the day in which Walker was disfigured. The matter will receive official attention.

Plekaway was the only winning favorite. Jockey C. Sullivan was suspended for a week for overantery of the barrier and the start of the still under suspension.

T. H. Ryan will offer all of his horses except bowner the favorite attention ext Saturday. Downpatrick will be reserved for winter racing at Oakland.

William Caine claimed Dr. McCluer from the St. James Stable yesterday.

HURRICANA STUD ESCAPES DESTRUCTION.

Amsterdam, N. Y., August 29.—Spontaneous combustion enused a fire that threatened the destruction of the Hurricana Stud, owned by General Stephen Sanford, and located about two miles east of this city, last Thursday morning.

Farm hands taking care of the work horses in their barns discovered the fire in a barn where nearly 200 ions of bay were stored. By hard work the irre was prevented from spreading to adjoining barns, where the broodmares, stallions and race horses were quartered, but the building in which the work horses are kept and the hay stored was totally destroyed.

The barn housing the broodmares was the first structure threatened, then the quarters of the stallions, but only slight damage was done. About 200 yards from the burned structure was the racing stable. All the horses were led out of their stalls without injury. The damage was about $8,000.

Hurricana Stud Farm is the largest thoroughbred breeding farm in the east. The stables have the actest improvements and are models of their kind. More than 200 thoroughbreds of all ages, from yearlings to old stallions and broodmares, are at Hurricana, including the stallions Chutchaunda. Clifford and Rockton, Mohawk H., a stake winner. La Tosca, one I Love and other broodmares, Fultonville, Fort Johnson, Valls, Adriuche, Polly Watts, Danoscara, Cliff Redge.

KINGSTON YEARLINGS A GOOD LOT.

KINGSTON YEARLINGS A GOOD LOT.

Lexington, Ky., August 29.—The fourteen Kingston Stud yearlings that were taken to New York today to be sold at Sheepshead Bay next Saturday, were originally intended for the market in England and Clarence H. Mackay had even gone as far as arranging the date, September S. at Doncaster for their sale. Following the receipt of several letters from abroad advising him that conditions were not favorable for high prices for American-bred youngsters and after the criticism which attended a similar venture on the part of Messrs, James R. Keene and August Belmont, Mr. Mackay decided to sell in New York.

Mr. Mackay sold fourteen last September for $51, 400. These fourteen are their superiors individually and collectively. The records of weight and leight kept at the farm annually by manager Charles B. Hill would seem to prove this. These yearlings average fifty pounds heavier and an inch taller than did those of 1907.

Eleven of the fourteen are colts and three are fillies. Twelve of the lot are by Meddler, one by Memper and the second of the s

MARVELOUS PARISIAN RACING CROWDS.

The official records of the number of people which saw the Grand Prix de Paris run this year is full of interest, as showing the marvelous Parisian interest in racing. Of the 328,165 people present, 202,600 paid 20 francs, about $4 each; 36,300 paid 5 francs, about $1 each; $9,265 paid 1 franc, about twenty cents each; 9,750 carriages, including motor cars, etc., paid $3 each to be allowed to pass inside of the ring.

This means the colossal revenue of $93,803 for one day to say nothing of the tremendous commission of the paris of the property of the p side of the ring.

This means the colossal revenue of $893,803 fo one day, to say nothing of the tremendous commission earned by the mutuels.

NO NEW ORLEANS RACES THIS WEEK.

New Orleans, La., August 29.—No races were run at Suburban Park today and none will be run Sunday of this week by the Horsemen's Matinee Racing Club, but it has been decided to wait until September 6 to resume the meeting. On that date, as also on Labor Day, races will be run, and two exceptionally good programs are being prepared.

Some rapid running was done in the course of the Fort Eric meeting, but only a few previously existing records were wiped out in favor of new ones. A new record at five and one-half furlongs was made, in which St. Jeanne, Michael Angelo, Berwick and Honest participated. King's Daughter set another at a mile and seventy yards and Dr. Lee Huffman one at a mile and three-sixteenths and Emperor William tied the five-furlongs record. The track records are now as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Word comes from France that Jimmy Owens, the cross-country rider, has arrived and intends to devote the greater part of the winter at Maisons-Laffitte.

Bird of Flight II., which won the second race at Empire City last Thursday, is a half-brother to King's Courier, the horse John A. Drake raced with much success in England some years ago.

E. E. Smathers, another sorchead, whose connection with racing did not add to its health, is quoted as saying: "I'm afraid its all over with racing. The game is on the down path with no sign of coming back. The whole fault lies at the feet of the bookies,' who wanted to grab everything in sight, forgetting absolutely the public or its interests.'

The freedom of the city of Dublin was conferred on Richard Croker on Tuesday last. He was also made a burgess of the city. Mr. Croker has recently contributed $2.500 to the fund for the Olympian reception of New York.

Great Britain in 1907 exported 61,783 horses, the biggest export ever known, though the total value of 86,200,000 was exceeded in 1906. Canada comes first of all countries as the purchaser of stallions and second only to Belgium as the purchaser of marcs.

"Tom" Shaw, regarded as one of the most suc-cessful of the professional bettors, will leave for Europe in a few days, having won $47,000 in the last four weeks. He bet $15,000 on Trance a few days ago when she defeated Royal Captive—New York Herald.

days ago when she defeated Royal Captive—New York Herald.

You need only to go to France to be convinced that gambling or speculation is in no sense inconsistent with carreful economy. There is no more careful or frugal people on earth than the French, and yet they dearly love to win or lose' a few frances over petits chevaux, or an actual race. There is no such thing as early closing in France, and yet you seldom, if ever, see a drunken man there, altogether they do many things much better in France than we do.—London Sportsman.

The dailies quote George Rose as publicly saying this: "I have cleaned up $150,000 since Governor Hughes signed the anti-betting bill. All my business was on the credit system. I took only oral bets. I had good luck, but I would have made $50,000 more if some of my patrons had settled their markers with me." There is not one chance in a thousand that Rose said anything like this or that it is true. Rose is reticent, mannerly and constitutionally inclined to verbally underrate his winnings if he has success.

KENTUCKIANS IN SELLING CRAZE.

Nearly Every Breeder in the Blue Grass Country Impatient and Bearish.

Lexington, Ky., August 29.—Weaning time is at hand and the sucklings are being taken from their dams on the thoroughbred breeding farms. With this parting of the foal and the mother will come, in many instances, the parting of the owner with his mares. Within the coming ninety days probably as many as 1,000, possfbly more, mares will be sold off the farms in the vicinity of Lexington. Colonel Milton Houng has 200 many and will sold off the farms in the vicinity of Lexington. Colonel Milton Houng has 200 many and will sold material to the market. Edward Corrigan will sell all of his. He has sold a good many and has overfifty left. There is scarcely a breeder in the Blue Grass country who will not have from one to twenty to get rid of. Some of them will be sold privately, but the majority will go by auction.

Just when and where the sales will be held has not been determined, but that they will all be held in this vicinity is practically certain. It is not beyond the runge of possibilities that there will shortly be a conference of the breeders out of which made come an understanding that the there will shortly be a conference of the breeders out of which made come an understanding that the process of the theory of the content of the process of the total content of the process of the selection of the process of the proces

YEARLINGS BRING ENCOURAGING PRICES.

New York, August 29.—The auction sale of yearlings from the Runnymede and Raceland Studs, which took place in the Sheepshead Bay paddock before the races today, was declared a distinct success. The bidding was brisk throughout, nearly every prominent horseman and owner in the east being present in person or represented by agents, H. B. Duryea, J. E. Madden and J. E. Widener were contending bidders on the Silver Blaze, East India, Alpena. Breakwater and Bonnie Blue II. colts, Forty-six head were sold for a total of $27,175, an average of approximately $590. Those bringing $500 or more were the following:

RIDING VETERANS IN A BUTTE RACE.

Last Tuesday at Butte. Mont., a race was run at five furlouss, entries to be ridden by grooms and stable boys. The purse was $390 and St. Joe won it in 1:031, with Currienlum second and St. Silver third. Perrine, a more than ordinary jeekey six or seven years ago, rode the will displayed in the race was above the average to 1:39 pounds. He rode well and the riding skill displayed in the race was above the average to 1:50 pounds. He rode well and the riding skill displayed in the race with their weights were: D. Fountain, 1:39; T. Clark, 1:39; Boland, 1:37; Butler, 1:36, and Rutter, 1:42. All are now trainers or workers in the stables now racing at Butte. All have been made useless as riders by the low weights that reflective way:

"Starter Murray had one of the largest andiences of his career at the post, for all the stable boys and those connected with the care of horses and boys at the track, to say nothing of owners and the public generally, congregated at the starting point to cheer on their favorites.

"The scene at the post brought back recollections of old times to a good many. There were riders in the race, such as Fountain, Boland, T. Clark, Rutter and Perrine, who, in their day, were up with the best and it was a bit pathetic to note how such riders have become, because of weight and other causes, unfit for riding, while others riding with them a few years ago have either become owners or trainers or in other ways have stuck to the rac-ing game."
